

PLAYERS CODE OF CONDUCT

- Have fun and play hard.
- Demonstrate thankfulness for what you have with the way that you play the game.
- Dress professionally.
- Play with a professional mindset.
- Treat the field like a stage and entertain those that are watching you.
- Design a persona or image that you know will be attractive to recruiters, coaches, family members, and other players.
- Respect everyone at the ballpark. Respect your opponents, umpires, and opposing players and their families.
- Show respect to yourself and your opponents after the game, regardless of the outcome.
- Manage your social media. Do not damage your professional reputation by posting inappropriate personal pictures or comments that can be perceived as undesirable by college coaches, family members, coaches, or other players.
